Policy conditions

General Conditions

These conditions apply to the entire schedule and policy including any endorsements and optional extensions that may be included.

- 1 You will need to give written notice to us as soon as reasonably practicable of any claim made against you (or any specific event or circumstance that may give rise to a claim being made against you) and which forms the subject of indemnity under this policy and will give all additional information as we may reasonably require. Every claim, summons or process, and all documents relating to the claim event or circumstance, must be forwarded to us immediately after receipt by you;
- 2 No admission, offer, promise or payment may be made or given by you or on your behalf without our prior written consent. We have the right to take over and conduct your defence or settlement of any claim or to prosecute on your behalf any claim for indemnity, damages or otherwise and will have full discretion in the conduct of any proceedings and settlement of any claim. You will be required to give all such information and assistance as is reasonably required by us or our appointed representatives;
- 3 You will be required to inform us as soon as reasonably practicable of any fact, event or circumstance which materially changes the information supplied to us at the time when this policy inceptioned, and we may amend the terms of this schedule and/or policy according to the materiality of such a change, legal liability, loss, damage, cost or expense;
- 4 We may, at any time, pay you for any claim or series of claims under this policy to which an insured amount applies, the amount of such a limit (after deduction of any sums already paid) or any lesser amount for which such claim can be settled, and upon such a payment being made we will relinquish the conduct and control of and be under no further liability in connection with such claim;
- 5 This policy document, as well as your schedule must be read together as one contract and any word or expression to which a specific meaning has been attached in any part of this policy or schedule will bear specific meaning wherever it may appear;
- 6 The interpretation of the terms and exclusions of this schedule and policy (and any phrase or word contained therein) will be interpreted in accordance with the law of the Republic of South Africa;
- 7 Where your premium is provisionally based on your estimates, you will keep accurate records and after expiry of the period of insurance, declare as soon as possible, the details that we require. The premium will then be adjusted, and any difference paid by or allowed to you, subject to any minimum premium applicable;
- 8 If any indemnity is sought under this policy by any fraudulent means, all benefits under this policy will be forfeited;

9

In the event that we make any payment under this policy, we shall be subrogated (to the extent of such payment) to all of your rights of recovery, and you shall co-operate with us in securing such rights. You shall not do anything to prejudice our ability to assert such rights;

10

We will be liable only for loss derived exclusively from a covered claim. If a claim involves both covered and uncovered matters or persons under this policy, then reasonable efforts will be used to determine a fair and equitable allocation of loss covered under this policy, taking into account the relevant legal and financial exposures and the relative benefits obtained by each of the relevant parties. If we cannot agree on an allocation in accordance with this condition within 14 days, then it is agreed that the issue shall be referred for determination to a Senior Counsel whose decision shall be final and binding on the parties, and the costs of Senior Counsel shall be shared according to the allocation of loss that is determined;

11

We will not defend you if you refuse to consent to a settlement that we recommend, and which the claimant will accept. In this case, you must then defend the claim at your own expense. Because of your refusal, our liability will not exceed the amount for which we could have settled such a claim (had you consented) plus claim expenses incurred prior to the date of such refusal;

12

If the limit of indemnity is increased during the period of insurance, our liability in respect of claims made against you or for circumstances of which we were notified, or should have been notified, prior to the increase, will not exceed the limit of indemnity applicable prior to such increase;

13

If you cancel or choose not to renew your policy, you have the right, following the effective date of the cancellation or non-renewal, to a period of sixty (60) days (herein referred to as the "extended reporting period") in which to give us written notice of claims first made against you during the extended reporting period, for any Occurrences that occurred prior to the end of the policy period and otherwise covered by this policy;

The extended reporting period does not apply to claims that are covered under any subsequent insurance you purchase.

Specific Conditions

If we cancel or do not renew the policy you have the option, subject to the payment of an additional premium to be determined by us and subject to the terms, exclusions and conditions of this policy, to extend the period during which you may report a claim in terms of General Condition 13 for a period to be agreed but in no circumstances exceeding a period of 48 months (hereinafter referred to as the "optional extended reporting period") provided that:

- a. this option may only be exercised if we, due to adverse claims experience against this policy, refuse to continue providing the required scope of cover;
- b. this option must be exercised by you in writing within 31 days of cancellation or non-renewal;
- c. once exercised, the option cannot be cancelled by either party to this contract;
- d. you have not obtained similar insurance to this policy as expiring;
- e. we will only be liable for any injury or damage which occurred after the retroactive date but prior to the date of cancellation or non-renewal;

- f. claims first made against you during the optional extended reporting period shall be treated as if they were first made or reported on the last day preceding the cancellation or non-renewal; and
- g. the total amount payable by us for claims made during the optional extended reporting period shall not have the effect of increasing the limit of indemnity applicable as on the last day preceding the cancellation or non-renewal.

Cancellation or Non-renewal Option

In the event that we cancel or do not renew the policy you have the option, subject to the payment of an additional premium to be determined by us and subject to the terms, exclusions and conditions of this policy, we will extend the period during which you may report a claim in terms of General Condition section point 2 for a period to be agreed but in no circumstances exceeding a period of 48 months (hereinafter referred to as the optional extended reporting period) provided that:

- i. this option may only be exercised if we, due to adverse claims experience against this policy, refuse to continue providing the required scope of cover;
- ii. this option must be exercised by you in writing within 31 days of cancellation or non-renewal;
- iii. once exercised, the option cannot be cancelled by either party to this contract;
- iv. you have not obtained insurance equal in scope and cover to this policy as expiring;
- v. we will only be liable for any circumstance, matter or thing which occurred after the retroactive date but prior to the date of cancellation or non-renewal;
- vi. claims first made against you during the optional extended reporting period shall be treated as if they were first made or reported on the last day preceding the cancellation or non-renewal; and
- vii. the total amount payable by us for claims made during the optional extended reporting period shall not have the effect of increasing the limit of indemnity applicable as on the last day preceding the cancellation or non-renewal.

Continuous Exposure Clause

If we cannot agree on the timing of the occurrence, then for the purposes of determining any indemnity under this policy:

- a. the injury will be deemed to have occurred when the other party first consulted a qualified medical practitioner in respect of such an injury. If no such consultation took place, then the injury will be deemed to have occurred when you became aware of the injury;
- b. any other occurrence will be deemed to have occurred when it first became evident to the other party, even if the cause was unknown.

The above criteria apply to claims first made during the period of insurance and also where it is not otherwise possible to determine whether the occurrence giving rise to a claim occurred before or after the retroactive date.

Notification Extension Clause

Should you notify us during your period of insurance of any occurrence that may give rise to a claim or claims, then acceptance of such a notification means that we will deal with such a claim(s) as if they had first been made against you on the same day that you notified us of such occurrence.

Indemnity to others

We will indemnify:

- 1 other parties if they entered into an agreement with you for any purpose of your business, but only to the extent required by such an agreement to grant such an indemnity and subject to the Specific Exclusions clause of the Public Liability section and General Exclusion 5;
- 2 your officials in their business capacity arising out of the performance of your business or in their private capacity arising out of their temporary engagement as your employees;
- 3 the officers, committee and members of your canteen, social, sports, medical, firefighting and welfare organisation in their respective capacities; and
- 4 the personal representatives of the estate of any person who would otherwise be indemnified by your policy, but only in respect of liability incurred by such a person.

Provided always that all such persons or parties will observe, fulfil and be subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions of this policy as though they were the insured.

Cross-liabilities

Each person or party will be separately indemnified in respect of claims made against any of them by any other person/party subject to our total liability not exceeding the stated limits of indemnity.

Limits of Indemnity

Our liability to pay compensation, other party's costs, fees and expenses and defence costs will not exceed the limits stated on your schedule for any one event or series of events with one original source or cause and/or, where stated, the annual combined amount per section or extension.

Should any one occurrence give rise to a claim or series of claims which falls under more than one section or extension of this policy, each section or extension will apply separately and be subject to its own separate limits. The amount will be limited to the total limit of liability under any one of the sections as stated on your schedule.

Should you be held accountable to any tax authority for Value Added Tax in respect of any payment in terms of this policy, we will include this amount in the final settlement of any claim under this policy in addition to the cover amount.

The excess is not subject to Value Added Tax unless applicable legislation specifically stipulates otherwise.

7. Excess Motor Liability

Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary in Specific Exclusion 1 of the Public Liability Section A, this insurance extends to indemnify you for any amounts in excess of any underlying motor liability insurance as stated on your schedule. This extension is subject to the following provisions:

- a. We will not indemnify you for claims for which compulsory insurance is required by any legislation.
- b. The underlying motor liability will be enforced for the whole duration of the policy, providing an insured amount of no less than R5 000 000.00 in respect of any one single event or occurrence.

- d. In respect of any claim wholly or partially indemnified by any underlying insurance, this policy is subject to the terms, exclusions and conditions of such underlying insurance and we agree to follow the interpretation by the underlying insurer of such terms, exclusions and conditions.
- e. Any decision by the underlying insurer to accept or pay a claim “ex gratia” or “without prejudice” will not be binding on us.
- f. No action or decision of the underlying insurer which prejudices us in the conduct or settlement of any claim under this policy will be binding on us.
- g. No indemnity is granted where any claim is uninsured by the underlying insurance by virtue of any excess or deductible there- under or which does not form the subject of indemnity thereunder.
- h. No indemnity is granted where any claim forms the subject of any extension to any underlying insurance where the insured amount in respect of such an extension is less than the indemnity stated on your schedule.

In the event of exhaustion of any aggregate limit applying to the underlying insurance by virtue of erosion due to claims, this extension will step down to reinstate such underlying limit.

8. Exhibitor's Liability

We will indemnify you in respect of all sums which you will become legally liable to pay in connection with any claim or claims arising from injury or damage arising out of or in connection with the erection or dismantling and operation of a stand at an exhibition venue, including during the transportation of materials and product/s for incorporation therein and subsequent return, provided that the claim amount will not exceed the insured amount stated on your schedule in respect of any one event.

9. Incidental Medical Malpractice

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Specific Exclusion 3 of the Products Liability/Defective Workmanship Section C, in the event of any other party alleging that they suffered financial loss by reason of tangible property (other than your products) being due to or alleged (other than by you) to be due to the failure of your product/s to perform as specified, warranted, guaranteed and/or to fulfil the intended function, then we hereby agree that we will not raise as a defence to granting indemnity by this policy that no damage (as foreseen by the Indemnity Clause of the Products Liability/Defective Workmanship Section C) has occurred, provided that the amount will not exceed the limit for Products Inefficacy as stated on your schedule.

We will also indemnify you in respect of all costs incurred in avoiding or mitigating the effects of such failure of your product/s to perform as specified, warranted or guaranteed and/or to fulfil their intended function provided that you will be liable for the excess on your schedule in respect of such costs.

Acceptance by you of this insurance is deemed to be acceptance of the above conditions as being precedent to the granting of indemnity against such “North American Jurisdiction”.

In consideration of the granting of such indemnity you agree to accept the following terms and exclusions in respect of any such judgment, award or settlement:

- e. The indemnity does not apply to claims arising out of injury and/or damage occurring prior to the retroactive date stated on your schedule under the heading “North American Jurisdiction”. Provided always that in the event of any injury or damage arising from continuous or continual inhalation, ingestion or application of any substance and where we cannot agree when the injury or damage occurred then the provisions of the Continuous Exposure Clause will apply.
- f. The indemnity does not apply to any actual or alleged violation of any responsibilities, obligations or duties imposed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or any amendment thereof.
